CORE // PROTEIN BARS FAQs

▶ Are CORE Protein Bars gluten-free?

Yes. CORE Protein Bars are gluten-free.

▶ Do CORE Protein Bars have fiber?

Yes. CORE Protein Bars are high in dietary fiber and contain 18 grams per bar.

▶ What is the source of the protein in CORE Protein Bars?

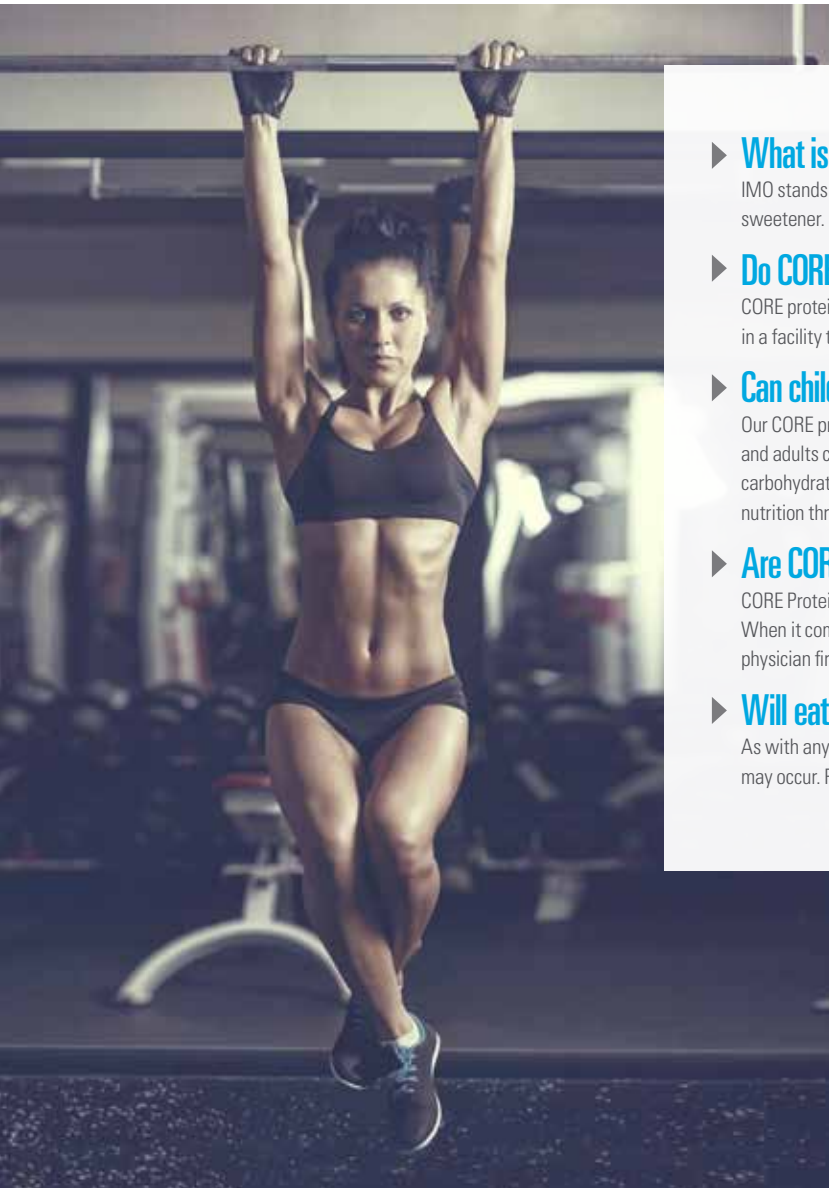

CORE Protein bars use a blend of whey protein isolate, rice protein, and pea protein.

▶ Can CORE Protein Bars be used as a meal replacement?

We recommend that you eat CORE Protein Bars between meals or as an on-the-go meal replacement. The CORE Protein Bars provide a nice ratio of proteins, carbohydrates, and fats.

▶ Do CORE Protein Bars contain artificial sweeteners, such as sucralose or aspartame?

No. CORE Protein Bars do not contain artificial sweeteners. The bars use a blend of IMO and xylitol and contain only 3 grams of sugar per bar.

▶ What is IMO?

IMO stands for Isomalto-oligosaccharides. It is a soluble dietary fiber, a prebiotic, and a low-calorie sweetener.

▶ Do CORE Protein bars have any allergen ingredients?

CORE protein bars contain milk ingredients and an ingredient derived from soy. The bars are also produced in a facility that processes milk, egg, tree nuts, wheat, peanuts, and soybeans.

▶ Can children eat CORE Protein Bars?

Our CORE product line is geared toward those looking to improve their health and fitness and both children and adults can enjoy our delicious CORE Protein Bars. The low levels of sugar and the ratio of protein, carbohydrates, and fats make our CORE Protein Bars perfect for ensuring your children receive extra nutrition throughout the day.

▶ Are CORE Protein Bars safe for people with diabetes?

CORE Protein Bars contain only 3 grams of sugar and should be safe to consume for people with diabetes. When it comes to your nutrition and making the right decision based on your situation, please consult your physician first.

▶ Will eating CORE Protein Bars create a laxative effect?

As with any food that is high in fiber, if you consume more than two bars simultaneously, a laxative effect may occur. Please follow the recommended use.
